

From the 20th May to 3rd June 2010
PRAGUE: Cultural Italian Institute
Exhibition of the selected artists from the 4° edition of the International Art Prize Arte Laguna

PRESS RELEASE

Thursday 20th May at 6.00 pm, the Italian Institute of Culture will inaugurate an exhibition about a selection of artists of the fourth edition of the International Art Prize Arte Laguna.

The will to communicate and to promote contemporary art brings the Arte Laguna Prize to collaborate with the Italian Cultural Institute in Prague.

An award in recent years has assumed international importance that see the participation of over 90 countries worldwide, with more than 5,500 participating artists and collaborations with 21 venues in Italy and abroad. Participation really intense and artistically interesting as it has been judged and appreciated by judges and organizers of the event ... but not only. The exhibition of the 180 finalists, held March 6 to 27 at the Arsenale in Venice, involving over 2,000 people in the opening night and ended with a total of 4,800 visitors and the appreciation of the press and art critics.

A selection of the Arte Laguna Prize's finalists, which has already exhibited at the Italian Cultural Institute in Vienna, will be presented at the Italian Cultural Institute in Prague with works by young artists not only Italian but also German, Hungarian, Spanish, Belgian, French, Brazilian, Turkish, Portuguese, Americans and Chinese. The Italian Cultural Institute not only promotes Italian initiatives but also promotes contemporary art and culture internationally.

To the opening will participate the co-founder of the Arte Laguna Prize, Laura Gallon, and Regent attaché of the Italian Cultural Institute, Rossana Ruggiero.

Info: www.premioartelaguna.it

www.iicpraga.esteri.it

+420257090681

Free entrance

Monday - Thursday: 10 - 12 and 15 to 18

Friday: 9 to 13

Saturday and Sunday: Closed